

Matthew Medeiros

Matt possesses a passionate interest for ensuring Uptown is a community that can balance the needs of current residents while building toward a vision that future generations will find desirable and affordable.

Matt and his wife, Jennifer, have resided in Hillcrest since 2008 with their three children. All three children attend Grant TK-8 in Mission Hills, where Matt has been an active volunteer in the classrooms and with the Grant PTA. Matt has been involved with various not-for-profits over the years and currently serves on the board of Just in Time for Foster Youth, whose mission is to engage a caring community to help transition-age foster youth achieve self-sufficiency and well-being.

Professionally, Matt is Vice President of Clelland & Company, Inc., where he has more than twenty years of experience as a financial advisor and consultant.
